Section 2 – Voting

All actions including election of officers and amendment of the Bylaws shall be made by the majority of those present voting.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1 – Number of Officers

The elected officers of the club shall be a President, Vice-President/Activities Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer. The officers shall each serve a one-year term or until their successors are qualified and elected.

Section 2 – Resignation of Officers

In the event, that any of the current officers, shall resign or become unable to hold office before the end of his/her elected term, the President shall appoint a member to fill the vacancy of said office for the remaining term.

Section 3 – Board Officers

Offices of Club Historian and Newsletter Editor are on a voluntary basis. For resignation see Article IV, Section 2.

ARTICLE V

Section 1 – Duties of the President

The President shall preside at all meetings of the members and shall perform duties pertaining to this office. He may call special meetings of members under the provisions of Article III. He shall be the Chief Executive of the club.

Section 2 – Duties of the Vice-President/Activities Chairman

In the absence of the President or in the case of his death, resignation, or inability to act, the duties usually appertaining to that office shall be performed by the

Vice-President. He shall also serve as Chairman of the Activities Committee and shall appoint other members of his committee as activities warrant.

Section 3 – Duties of the Secretary

The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the members and shall record all minutes and votes in a book kept for this purpose. He/She shall keep an up-to-date roll of all club members. He/She shall give all notices of meetings of the members required by these Bylaws and shall perform all duties incident to this office, required by the majority vote of the members. He/She shall have custody of all the club's records. In the absence of the Secretary from any of the said meetings, a Secretary pro tempore shall be chosen by the presiding officer.

Section 4 – Duties of the Treasurer

The Treasurer shall, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be made by the members, have custody of all monies, debts and obligations belonging to the club. He/She shall receive all monies of the club and deposit same in the club account(s). He/She shall make all payments of club debts upon approval of the officers. All contracts, drafts, notes, or other orders for payment of money shall be signed in the name of the club by any two of the following officers: President, Vice-President, and Treasurer. The Treasurer shall give a report on the financial status of the club at each monthly meeting. No obligation, debt or other liability shall be incurred by the Treasurer without the specific approval of the members.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1 – Appointment of Committees

The President shall appoint such committees as he finds desirable from time to time and shall outline the duties and responsibilities of such committees. All reports or action taken by a committee must be voted by majority of the entire committee.

In addition to the authority granted above, certain standing committees, as set forth shall be appointed annually by the Vice-President/Activities Chairman.

Section 2 – Activities

The activities of the club shall consist of planned trips, social gatherings, and events for Corvette owners as planned by the Activities Chairman, his/her committee and other members appointed by them. Said activities will be proposed before the group and upon acceptance noted in the club newsletter to inform all members at large. Final proposal shall then be voted on by ten or more active members present at the following monthly meeting. (See Article III, Section 2 – Voting.)

ARTICLE VII

Section 1 – Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the club shall be from July 1 to June 30.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1 – Personal Liability

All persons or corporations extending credit to, contracting with or having any claims against the club or officers, shall look only to the funds and property of the club for payment of any such contract or claim for payment of any debt, damage, judgment, or decree, or any other money that may otherwise become due to payable to them from the corporation or the officers; so that neither the members of the club, the officers, present and future, shall be liable personally therefore.

ARTICLE IX

Section 1 – Amendment to the Bylaws

The officers of the club, or any ten active members in good standing by written proposals submitted to the Secretary may propose an amendment to the Bylaws. Upon such proposal being made, a copy thereof shall be included in the notice of the next monthly meeting of the members. Ballot voting shall be controlled by the same rules as set forth in Article IV, relating to the election of the officers. If any ten or more active members present at a monthly meeting vote in favor of a proposal, the proposed amendment shall thereby be considered approved and adopted.

ARTICLE X

Section 1 – Flowers for Funerals

Flowers will be furnished by the club for immediate family members only (member, husband or wife and children). All other funeral activities will be recognized by a card only.
